Silent Auction Bidding Procedures and Rules

1. The Silent Auction begins at 5:30 pm. A warning of imminent closure of the Silent Auction will be given fifteen (15) and five (5) minutes prior to closing.
2. Bids will be accepted on each item until closing.
3. A bid sheet is displayed for each item. In order for a bid to be considered valid, the bidder's name, table number and bid amount must appear on the appropriate line. Bids that do not follow the opening amount and minimum increments indicated on each sheet will not be considered valid bids.
4. Bidding on an item will stop when the Silent Auction is closed and an Auction Attendant picks up the bid sheet.
5. The person whose name appears opposite the highest valid bid will be considered the winner.
6. All guests will be asked for their credit cards at registration. No credit card information will be retained by Pacific Asia Museum following the event.
7. All items have been donated specifically for the purpose of raising funds for the museum. None of the items are from the museum's collection.
8. All items are sold "as is." There are no returns, credits, or refunds. Pacific Asia Museum makes no warranties or representations of any kind or nature, either expressed or implied, with respect to the property. If you decide not to take your item, your purchase price will be considered a donation to Pacific Asia Museum.
9. It is the successful bidder's responsibility to make the necessary arrangements for trips or as required for other items, unless otherwise specified on the bid sheet or relevant certificate. After payment is made, the certificates are the property of the winning bidder, and cannot be replaced or altered.
10. Suggested values have been supplied by the donors and appraisers, and are not guaranteed by Pacific Asia Museum.
11. Winning bid does not include California sales tax. All art objects are subject to sales tax, and the sales tax must be paid in accordance with the law. Please consult your tax advisor regarding deductibility of contributions.
12. Final bids do not include shipping or delivery charges. Winning bidders are responsible for all shipping and delivery charges. Winning bidders must contact PAM to make delivery arrangements. Please Note: Very large items may be picked up at Pacific Asia Museum between October 5 - 8, 2010. Please contact the Festival Office at 626.449.2742 ext. 28 or j.lin@pacificasiamuseum.org to arrange your pick-up time.

Participation in the Festival constitutes a waiver of any and all claims against Pacific Asia Museum, its employees, agents and representatives for any damage, loss or injury resulting from or connected with the use or receipt of any item or service auctioned.
